Your note of yesterday my dear one is not encouraging as regards your mother's ultimate recovery. I fear if she recovers from this it will be to lingering weakness. Living or dying may she be blessed. As long in your hearts & memories she will always be.

Tomorrow we - Sarah & Carrie - go to Springfield - The meeting of the Chest takes place immediately after our arrival (12 o'clock) I hoped you would be there when this took place.
We return the same day & arrive in town at 8 $\frac{1}{2}$.

My eyes are very much better. & the hay cold still holds off. I am very careful - not wearing eyes in the loop. & in the day for little else than clay. The boat is not finished.

The business was not sufficiently strong - they thought - & the requirements of the position - with a sharp light - striking up from the pavement make it difficult to get a strong business - I work on it - wholly with this light. On under light - that is.
It is since day bef. yesterday that I began to make these charges.
& all of them had thought the least a very strong presence in the man - but it was not satisfying that it was the best tender so, & so I am not sorry to be nagged into something that will be done when done & in place.

I must stop -

My own dearest - I am with you in all you. That - would I could go down - I have been waving indeed as to whether I should not - but keep on to N. Y. - but it would be for only a day or two.

Sleep all you can -
